

Best Hair Contest — Social Media Playbook

Everything you need to launch the poll, run it for a week, and crown a winner. Print this or keep it open while you post.

Your poll link: <https://trashpanda62.github.io/tapestry-area-map/hair-poll/>

(This is the live page people vote on. Put it in your Instagram & Facebook bio / link-in-bio.)

Your ready-to-post images: C:\dev\hair-poll\cards\

11 square cards (card_01...card_10 + card_bonus) plus an announcement card (card_00_announce.jpg). All 1080×1080, sized for Instagram/Facebook/TikTok.

The game plan — 3 posts over ~7 days

When	Post	Goal
Day 1 — Launch (Fri or Sat AM)	Announcement card + a carousel of the contestants	Kick it off, drive votes to the link
Day 3–4 — Reminder	Story/short post: "it's neck-and-neck!" + current leader	Re-poke people who forgot to vote
Day 7 — Reveal	Winner card + the goat's new name	Big payoff, thank voters, invite a visit

Best times to post for a local farm audience: weekday 7–9am, 12–1pm, or 7–9pm, and weekend mornings.

Instagram

1) Feed post (the main event)

- New post → select the announcement card first, then card_01 through card_10 (Instagram allows up to 10 images in a carousel — lead with the announce card, then Joey #1, etc.).
- Paste the Launch caption (below). Post.
- Make sure the poll link is in your bio (use your Linktree or paste the link directly in "Edit Profile → Website").

2) Stories (this is where votes come from)

- Post 2–3 contestant cards to your Story. Add the Link sticker pointing to the poll link so people can tap straight through.
- Fun option: use the Story poll sticker or "this or that" with two contestants at a time ("Joey vs The Diva — who's got better hair?") to build hype, then send them to the real poll via the link sticker.
- Don't forget the goat — post her card with "she needs a NAME — vote at the link 🐐".

3) Reel (optional, biggest reach)

- A quick 7–10s Reel flipping through the cards to trending audio, caption "Vote in bio 🙌". Reels out-reach everything else right now.

Facebook

- Create a post with the announcement card (or an album of all the cards). Paste the Launch caption.
- Put the poll link right in the post text (Facebook shows it as a clickable preview — that's what the share image is for).
- Pin the post to the top of your Page (⋮ menu → Pin to top).
- Share it to relevant local groups (Livingston / Overton County community pages, homeschool & farm groups) — with permission where required.
- Reply to every comment quickly the first few hours — engagement makes Facebook show it to more people.

TikTok

- Make a photo slideshow (upload the cards) or a short video panning across them, set to a trending/again sound.
- Caption: "Vote for the best hair on our farm 🐑 (link in bio) + help us name our goat 🐐". Add the hashtags.
- TikTok doesn't do clickable links in captions well — say "link in bio" and pin a comment with the poll link.

Launch

👑 The most important debate at Tapestry Acres: WHO HAS THE BEST HAIR? 🦙

10 of our alpacas are competing for the crown — from Joey's buck-toothed charm to The Diva's legendary topknot. And our newest arrival? A goat who's crashing the contest as a bonus star... who STILL doesn't have a name. 🐐

👉 Vote for your favorites (as many as you love!) AND help us name the goat — link in our bio.

Tag a friend who needs to meet the herd ❤️

Reminder (Day 3–4)

It's NECK AND NECK 🔥 Right now [current leader] is winning the Best Hair Contest — but your favorite might be falling behind!

Last few days to vote + name our goat 👉 link in bio. Every vote counts 🦙 🐐

Winner reveal (Day 7)

🏆 THE RESULTS ARE IN!

Congratulations to [WINNER] — officially the Best Hair at Tapestry Acres! 👑 🦙

And our once-nameless goat is now... drumroll... [GOAT NAME]! 🐐 Chosen by YOU.

Thank you to everyone who voted ❤️ Come meet the whole crew in person — plan your visit at the link in our bio.

Turn on shared, live voting (optional, ~2 min — one time)

Out of the box the poll counts votes per phone (great for a fun website vote). To make everyone see one shared live tally (and pool the write-in goat names), switch on the free Google backend:

- Open `C:\dev\hair-poll\Code.gs` and follow the 6 setup steps at the top (script.google.com → paste → Deploy → Web app → Anyone → copy the /exec URL).
- Send Claude that /exec URL and it'll switch the live poll to shared mode and re-deploy — or paste it into `index.html` just before `</head>` as shown in the file.

Not required to launch — you can go live today in per-device mode and turn on shared voting anytime.
